DRANK A PINT OF WHISKY.

Thomas Payne's Foolish Feet Nearly Cost Him His Life.

Thomas Payne, a young colored man, drank a pint flask filled with whisky from his inside pocket, while on Thirteenth street, near M, about 12:30 o'clock, yesterday afternoon and raising it about shouldered.

With this remark he drained the contents of the flask and sank to the sidewalk in an unconscious condition. Payne was removed to the Emergency Hospital in the seventh precinct patrol wagon, and although the house staff of surgeons worked hard, he did not regain his senses until 8 o'clock last night, a period of seven and a half hours.

The overdose of cheap liquor, the physicians stated, came very near resulting in the foolhardy fellow's death. Later in the night he was able to go to his home, No. 27 Ninth street northeast.

Packet Picked. Mrs. R. L. Cooper, of No. 1928 Fifth street northwest, reported to the Eighth precinct station last evening that her pocket was picked of $12 while in the crowd at the corner of Seventh street and Pennsylvania avenue.

WEST TO THE BOTTOM.

Drowning of a Colored Boy at the Tenth Street Wharf.

Another boy who could not swim lost his life in the Potomac yesterday afternoon by being foghorned.

Nine-year-old John Holmes, colored, whose parents reside at No. 237 F street southwest, went down to the Tenth street wharf between 3 and 4 o'clock p. m. Notwithstanding the fact that John had never learned to swim, he commenced undressing and declared that he was going overboard at a point where the water is fully fifteen feet deep. After removing all his clothing, except his pants, the boy stood on the edge of the wharf, and turning to his companions, said:

"Watch me take a header." Before the others could reach him to prevent the mad act, John sprang off the pier, and striking the water went to the bottom like a stone. He never came to the surface again until his lifeless body was hauled up by the crew of the police-steamer Joe Blackhorn, who commenced to drag for the remains a few minutes after the drowning.

The body was removed to the boy's home in the Fourth precinct patrol wagon.

HIS HEART IN A VISE.

Terrible Experience of Engineer Godfrey, of the Corean Gallery.

Charles Godfrey, engineer at the Corean Gallery of Art, had a rather startling experience about 9:30 o'clock last night. While proceeding along Canal street northwest, he was suddenly stricken with heart failure, and fell to the sidewalk as though he had been struck by lightning.

Policeman Sprinkle had the unconscious man removed to Emergency Hospital, but consciousness was not restored until after fifteen minutes' hard work by the hospital staff of physicians.

In describing his experience afterwards, Mr. Godfrey said he felt something seize his heart as though a vise were being tightened about his throat. Then there was a flash of darkness and he knew no more. He was afterwards able to walk to his home, corner Seventeenth and Carret streets northwest.

The Evening Times gives all the news for a cent.

DESPERATE ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE

William Harness Slashes His Throat with a Razor, but Did Not Die.

Mr. William Harness, a city drummer, in the employ of Mr. George W. Offutt, wholesale grocer, on M street, near Thirty-second, attempted suicide by cutting his throat with a razor about 9 o'clock yesterday morning at his home, No. 3055 Q street northwest, as stated in The Evening Times.

He how lies with an ugly gash across his throat, extending almost from ear to ear, and with the chances for his recovery about equal with those against it.

What could have induced Mr. Harness to do the deed is not known, but it is supposed there was a possible derangement of the mind, brought about by a recent illness.

So determined was Mr. Harness' intention to commit suicide that he fought the physician when the needle tried to sew up the wounds brought him to a state of unconsciousness.

He pulled away the stitches as the doctor made them, and the officers were compelled to hold his hands. After being placed in bed, he became calmer and permitted the bandages to remain in place.

Seriously Kicked by a Horse. While working in United States stable in Georgetown last evening, William Moore, colored, of No. 1025 Congress street, was kicked in the abdomen by a vicious horse and seriously injured. He was removed to the Emergency Hospital in the seventh precinct patrol wagon.

Addressed the Colored Engineers. The Progressive Association of Steam Engineers, a colored organization, held an entertainment in Grand Army Hall last night, at which addresses on engineering were delivered by Prof. J. M. Langston, E. M. Hewlett and J. D. Baltimore.

A Peep Under The Curtain.

'Tisn't quite time yet to talk about Fall Clothing—but if you want to get a glimpse of what's going to be worn by nobby dressers come in any day and see some of the garments we are piling up on these counters of ours. We've had fine stocks before—but—come in and look—it'll do you good.

Every garment that looks a bit "summery" is being closed out at a price that wouldn't pay for the CLOTH that's in it. No "hold-overs" here—every season sees us go out clean as a whistle.

COME IN AND SEE FOR YOURSELVES

how we've fractured prices. We've got to sell all the stock we've got on hand 'cause we've made up our minds not to carry any of it into our new building. We haven't done the work gingerly. If we lose more than the profit, we shan't mind. Sell—sell—that's all we're thinking about.

Can you afford to overlook such an opportunity? You needn't pay cash unless you want to. We'll give you credit, as usual.

If the house needs anything now—or is going to before winter is over—you can save more money than you've any idea of by buying it now.
